

Netflix Movies & TV Shows: Data Analysis

Who's buying?

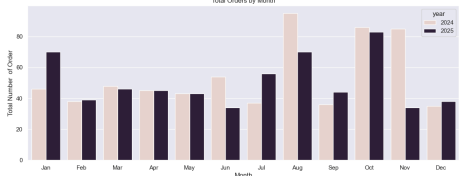

Customers Priya Reddy (C0067) and Rohan Verma (C0097) are the most frequent shoppers, each placing 8 orders but neither appears in the high-spenders list.

Who's spending?

Meanwhile, Karan Reddy (C0496) dominates by revenue, accounting for nearly 35% of total spending among the top five.

Order volume is remarkably seasonal.

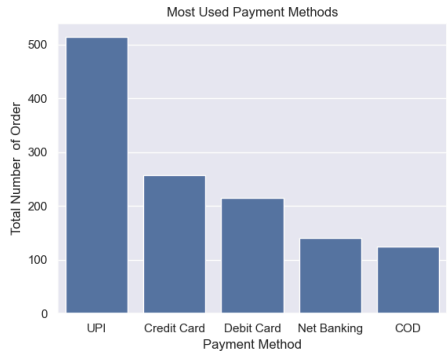

In 2024, the business had a dramatic spike in August (95 orders) followed by a October with 83.

January 2025 started the year unusually hot, with another spike in August and a strong October again.

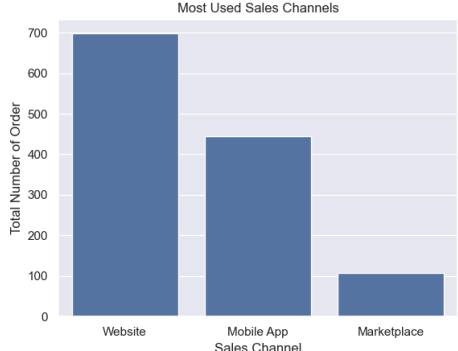

This split reveals an important insight:

Order volume and order value don't always go hand-in-hand. A small group of high-value customers quietly drives a disproportionate share of revenue.

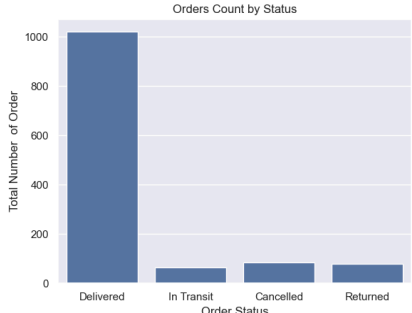

The summer months also signal potential for targeted promotions around skin-care awareness seasons.

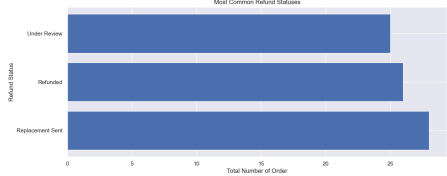

UPI dominates payment methods with 514 orders, which is more than double Credit Card at 257.

Regarding sales channel, the Website leads with 698 orders.

The overwhelming majority of orders (over 1,000) are delivered successfully.

Refund resolutions are fairly evenly split between "Replacement Sent" (~28), "Refunded" (~26), and "Under Review" (~25).

The leading reason for returns is skin irritation.

Moisturizer, averagely rated at 4.14/5, leads in rating by category.

Vitamin B5 Moisturizer (P010), Vitamin B5 Moisturizer, Vitamin B5 Moisturizer (P026), Vitamin B5 Moisturizer (P017), Vitamin B5 Moisturizer (P018) are the 5 highest average-rated products, which are all moisturizers.

5-star reviews (193 reviews) leads in custom reviews, and dwarf both 1-star (28 reviews) and 2-star (39 reviews).

2% Salicylic Acid Face Serum (P004), Vitamin C 10% Face Serum (P009), Alpha Arbutin 2% Serum (P001), Ceramide Moisturizer (P003), Oat Extract Gentle Cleanser (P0017) are 5 most returned products, which are largely serums.